Laura Davis is a multi-award-winning Australian stand-up comedian and writer, based in London.

Since making her name in 2008 as a national finalist in the Melbourne International Comedy Festival RAW competition, Laura has returned to MICF ten times with eight different solo shows, garnering a reputation as one of the most talented and distinctive acts performing at the festival. Her sixth offering, Ghost Machine, won her both the Golden Gibbo and the Melbourne Fringe Best Comedy Award in 2015. Marco Polo, her 2016 show for MICF and the Adelaide Fringe Festival, won her the prestigious Comedy Channel Moosehead Award.

Laura made her Edinburgh Fringe debut in 2017 with Cake in the Rain and returned 2018 with a reprise of Ghost Machine. Both shows received widespread critical acclaim and secured subsequent runs at London’s Soho Theatre. Summer 2019 saw Laura return to the Fringe with her latest show, Better Dead than a Coward, which received critical acclaim.

Laura was a writer on the seventh and eighth seasons of ABC TV’s Shaun Micallef’s Mad As Hell, Australia’s long-running satirical news and current affairs program, and she has also performed stand-up on ABC TV’s Comedy Up Late, MICF Upfront Gala and ABC Comedy Next Gen Special.

Laura has also been a guest on several of the UK’s leading podcasts, including The Adam Buxton Podcast, The Comedian’s Comedian Podcast and The Guilty Feminist.

Press Comments:

A different kind of provocative... Smart, challenging, ambitious, playful and funny.

Chortle.co.uk ★★★★★

Genuinely brilliant stand-up.

Comedy.co.uk

An hour with Laura Davis leaves you feeling uplifted, somewhat bewildered and utterly amazed by such blistering talent.

Time Out ★★★★★

An ingeniously constructed shaggy dog story which, for all its playful nonsense, will be best remembered for its unexpected moments of emotional clarity.

Fest Magazine (ref. Better Dead Than A Coward) ★★★★★

A lot of laughs from this rising stand-up star.

The List ★★★★★

A beautiful, expressive show.

Fest Magazine (ref. Ghost Machine) ★★★★★

...extraordinary stand-up that squeezes your heart until you feel the blood surging through your body.

The Age ★★★★★.5

Impossible not to laugh. Everyone left on a high.

Herald Sun ★★★★★

This is when the real magic begins; Davis flexes her improv muscles and comfortably lets things loosen up before bringing things home with genuine heart. Last year, Davis earned her status as a cult favourite; this year shows why she won't remain an underground name for much longer.

Time Out ★★★★★

The performance itself is an act of defiance...one of the more fascinating shows at the festival.

Chortle.co.uk

This is more than straight stand up. This is a performance. This is an experience. A bloody spectacular one... Davis doesn't own the stage. She owns the room.
